PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE.

Fifth Parliament—Fourth Session.

TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY.

FRIDAY, March 14, 1890.

The Speaker took the chair at 2:05 p. m.

Prayers by Venerable Archdeacon Scriven.

Mr. Martin presented a report from the Private Bills committee advising a refund of the fee paid by E. E. Olcott and others who asked for mining rights near the town of Yale, which had already been granted to another company.

A NEW POLLING PLACE.

Mr. Smith, by the request of the settlers of his district, moved "That a respectful address be presented to the lieut.-governor, praying that an additional polling place may be established in the electoral district of Lillooet, viz., at or near the house of E. M. Adams on the North Thompson river."

The resolution was seconded by Mr. Mason.

Mr. Semlin thought the people of the section named in the motion properly came within Yale district. However if they wished to vote in Lillooet district he could say nothing against their doing so; he would have liked however to have been informed what the wish of the majority was in the matter.

Mr. Martin said that for years past the appropriations for this district had come from Yale district.

After a brief discussion the hon. chief commissioner requested the hon. member for Lillooet to allow his resolution to stand over, and Mr. Smith acceded to the request.

The debate was adjourned until Monday.

RETURN.

Hon. Mr. Turner presented the return of special warrants, signed by the lieut.-governer, for the six months last past.

ELECTION REGULATIONS.

Mr. Duck introduced a bill to amend the Election Regulations Act. Read a first time; second reading on Monday.

MUNICIPAL ACT.

On the further consideration of the report on this bill several new and trifling amendments were incorporated on motion of Hon. Mr. Beaven.

P. C. FIRE INSURANCE CO.

At 2:30 o'clock the House went into committee, Mr. Anderson in the chair, upon the Pacific Coast Fire Insurance Co. bill. The committee rose reporting progress.

AMENDMENTS.

Hon. Mr. Davie introduced a bill to make certain amendments to the Consolidated Acts, 1888. Read a first time; second reading on Wednesday.

TRANSMITTED BY MESSAGE.

Hon. Mr. Robson presented a message from the lieut.-governor, transmitting a bill to enable the trustees of the Royal Columbian hospital to sell certain lands and apply the proceeds; also a bill to enable the House to grant certain lands for charitable purposes. The messages and bills enclosed to be considered in committee of the whole on Monday.

COLUMBIA AND CARBONATE RAILWAY.

On motion, the Columbia and Carbonate Railway bill (Col. Baker) passed its third reading.

OKANAGON AND KOOTENAY.

Mr. Martin moved the adoption of the report and third reading of the Okanagon and Kootenay Railway Bill. Carried.

HOMESTEAD BILL.

The bill to amend the Homestead Act (No. 27) passed its third reading.

B. C. ELECTRIC CO.

The report on this bill, on motion of Mr. Cunningham, was adopted. Third reading of the bill set for Monday.

JUBILEE HOSPITAL.

On consideration of the report on this bill (Hon. Mr. Davie) the full title, "Provincial Royal Jubilee Hospital," was restored, it being explained that all contracts had been completed under this complicated name. The bill passed its third reading.

RAILWAY BILL.

The House went into committee upon the Railway Bill (Hon. Attorney-General), Mr. Cunningham in the chair. Progress was reported at 5 p. m,

GOLD GRAVELS SYNDICATE.

On motion of Mr. Cunningham, the bill to incorporate the Fraser River Gold Gravels Syndicate, as amended by the Private Bills Committee, was read a second time and sent into committee, with Mr. Mason in the chair. The bill was reported complete.

COMPANIES' BILL.

Hon. Mr. Davie, in moving the second reading of the Companies' Act Amendment Bill reviewed the circumstances which brought to his notice the necessity of amending the original act. He explained the changes proposed in the bill. On the conclusion of his remarks Hon. Mr. Davie moved the adjournment of the debate. Carried.

THE ESTIMATES,

Hon. Mr. Turner presented a message from the Lieut.-Governor accompanying the estimates for the year. To be referred to committee of supply on Monday.

The House rose at 6 o'clock.

NOTICES OF MOTION.

By Hon. Mr. Robson—To move the following resolution: "Whereas the waters of the Fraser river are in several places in New Westminster district making alarming and destructive inroads upon its banks, thus not only doing great damage to the property of settlers, and in some instances threatening to change the course of the river altogether, but seriously impairing navigation by the formation of bars by silt thus carried down the stream:

"Resolved that a respectful address be presented to his honor the Lieut.-Governor requesting that the Dominion Government may be moved to adopt such measures as may be deemed best for the protection of property and the preservation of the navigation of the important water-way in question."

By Hon. Mr. Davie—To introduce a bill relating to the administration of the Estates of Deceased Persons.

By Mr. Cunningham—In committee upon the Westminster Tramway Bill, to insert the following as a new clause:

"That the cars and carriages of the said company while running on the said railways, or any of them, shall have the right to use the said railways as against all other vehicles whatever, and all other vehicles using the said railways, whether meeting or proceeding in the same direction as the said cars or carriages, shall turn out of the said track of the said railways and permit the said cars or carriages to pass, and shall in no case and under no pretense whatever obstruct or hinder the passage thereof and the free use of the said railways by the said cars and carriages of the said company.

By Mr. Duck—In committee upon the National Electric Tramway Extension Bill to insert section 13:—The company shall begin the construction of a line of tramway from Victoria to Brackman & Ker's, North Saanich, within two years, and complete and equip the said line with the necessary rolling stock within five years from the passing of this act; otherwise the right of the company to construct a line of tramway between Victoria and Brackman & Ker's mill, shall cease and terminate. But nothing in this act shall be construed as precluding the company from owning, maintaining and operating any part or parts of the line to be constructed as aforesaid which may have been constructed prior to the expiration of the said term of five years notwithstanding any default that may have been made by the company.

By Mr. Duck—To move that the return for copies of orders-in-council, correspondence and reports relating to the application of Messrs. McNamee & Co. for a petition of right re. Esquimalt graving dock claims be printed.

LORD CHURCHILL'S CONSISTENCY.

LONDON, March 14.—The Tory indignation manifested toward Lord Randolph Churchill by the Tories generally and his constituents particularly, in consequence of his attack upon the government, has inspired the Liberals with the hope, if not absolute confidence, that they will be able to capture the seat for South Paddington, to which Lord Randolph was returned unopposed at last election. In any event, the Liberals will contest the seat at next election, and if the Tories put up a candidate to oppose Lord Churchill, as they doubtless will, the chances of the Liberals winning the seat will be excellent.

THE LABOR CONFERENCE.

Notwithstanding the compliments which are being paid to Emperor William by the press of all sections of the empire upon the excellence of the delegates chosen to sit in behalf of Germany in the labor conference, there is a general feeling that the conference will be barren of the results which his majesty expects, and for which the people have been led to hope. The prompt acceptance by France of the invitation to participate in the conference was as gratifying as it was unexpected. But the widespread and powerful opposition to the government's action in accepting the invitation and the feeling against the representatives which is being shown in the columns of a majority of the French newspapers, carries conviction that the relaxation of the tension between France and Germany will not be one of the results of the deliberations of the congress.

A GREAT STRIKE.

By the action of the Miners Federation in resolving to inaugurate a general strike, owing to the indifference of the masters to the demands of the men, upwards of 350,000 are affected.

PROSPECT OF A NATIONAL STRIKE.

Many mine owners have become alarmed at the prospect of a national strike, and have already granted the demands of their employees, but many others are still firm in their refusal to make the concession asked.

LORD DUNLO'S DIVORCE.

Lord Dunlo, who has began suit for divorce against his wife, formerly a music hall singer known as Belle Belton, has retained Sir Charles Russell as counsel. It is asserted that in addition to Isadore Wertherman, a wealthy young Jew, who is named as co-respondent in the action, several others, some of them intimate friends of the plaintiff, will be cited to defend themselves against the accusation of having contributed to Lord Dunlo's grounds for an absolute separation from "my Lady."

EDISON'S GRATITUDE.

Thomas A. Edison, the American electrician, has forwarded to Dr. Fraedler, of Dresden, a magnificent service of silver in recognition of that physician's attention to his daughter on the occasion of her illness in January. Miss Edison was taken ill while on a railway train en route from Vienna to Berlin, and upon her arrival at Dresden was removed to a hospital, where it was found she had smallpox. Her rapid and complete recovery is ascribed by Mr. Edison to the care and treatment of Dr. Friedler, who attended her throughout.

AN ADVERSE VOTE.

Defeat of the French Ministry in the Senate.

Tirard Hands in His Resignation to President Carnot.

Nothing Definite Yet Known as to a New Ministry—M. D. Freycinet and M. Floquet Mentioned.

PARIS, March 14.—The cabinet resigned as a result of the rejection by the senate last night of the request of Premier Tirard for a vote on the commercial treaty with Turkey.

As a consequence of the denial by the senate yesterday of Premier Tirard's demand for the adoption by that body of the order of the day in connection with the matter of the Turkish commercial treaty, the cabinet, through M. Tirard, have tendered their resignations to President Carnot. At yesterday's session of the senate, the Government being interpellated regarding the treaty, M. Tirard moved the order of the day. The motion was rejected by the senate by a majority of 78. As this was a vote equivalent to an expression of want of confidence in the government, the prime minister tendered his resignation to President Carnot, to retain office until after Easter. To-day, however, at a cabinet meeting called to consider the situation, M. Tirard announced that he had reconsidered his agreement to remain.

Later—The premier visited the executive residence and there tendered the resignation of the ministers.

TALK OF A NEW MINISTRY.

The new ministry will probably be organized by M. De Freycinet, who held the war portfolio in M. Tirard's cabinet. M. Constans, late minister of the interior, and M. Ribotaire are spoken of in connection with the new ministry. Admiral Baibey, minister of marine; M. Faye, minister of agriculture, and M. Nallier, minister of public instruction, will probably continue in the service under the new dispensation.

M. FLOQUET'S CHANCES.

President Carnot having had consultation with M. Floquet this afternoon, the belief prevails in some places that M. Floquet will be requested to form a new ministry.

CANADIAN NEWS.

A Shocking Outrage.

TORONTO, March 14.—The outrage on the seventeen-year-old girl, Lottie MacDonald, who comes from Paisley, Ont., appears to have been worse than was at first imagined. She was kept in a house in a lonely part of the city from ten at night until the next afternoon by three men who enticed her there. There were eight or nine in the room at different times when the assaults were made. The girl was shamefully used and badly injured. So far three men are under arrest. The others are known, however. Only three took part in the outrage. It is not impossible that these may be sent to the gallows or sentenced to the penitentiary for life.

Breach of Lottery Act.

TORONTO, March 14.—In the cases of the publishers of the Mail and News, charged with a breach of the lottery act by printing advertisements of the New Orleans lottery in these papers, the police magistrate to-day decided to impose a fine of $25. The case will be appealed.

Mercier's University Grant.

QUEBEC, March 14.—Premier Mercier's resolution voting ten thousand dollars towards the Toronto University, passed the house after a short debate by a vote of 28 to 19. The whole of the opposieion and three government supporters voted against the measure.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

Proposed Joining of the Forces of the B. C. Agricultural Association and Victoria Jockey Club.

It is suggested that the amalgamation of the forces of the B. C. Agricultural Society and of the Victoria Jockey Club would be conducive to the best interests of both. The Jockey Club hold the lease of the Driving Park property, and it is proposed to erect buildings for exhibition and racing purposes to cost in the neighborhood of $25,000. If such a combination could be accomplished, and every effort put forth to make all events a great success, the benefit that would be derived by the two institutions and by Victoria City would be incalculable. The Driving Park property is in every way adapted for the purposes of each, and good management and reasonable support from the public would insure success. The street cars in the course of a short time will be extended to the entrance of the park and transportation to and from the grounds thus made cheap, rapid and convenient. It is to be hoped that the suggestion will take definite shape, as the Agricultural Association require larger grounds, and an early start is necessary to ensure an exhibition that will excel anything before held.

WESTMINSTER SPECIAL.

Proposed Lines of Electric Railways to Lulu Island.

Work on the North Arm Bridge Commenced—Saanich Lime in Great Demand in the Royal City.

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

NEW WESTMINSTER, March 14.—Work on the North Arm bridge repairs has been commenced under the supervision of Mr. Balfour. Only a small force of men is employed at present, but the number will be increased as the work progresses.

A telegram was received from Ottawa this afternoon stating that the Fraser river salmon licenses would be issued forthwith. This is good news to the fishermen who have been very uneasy owing to the delay.

Saanich lime is having a great run in this city at present. Fifteen hundred barrels have been received during the last two weeks.

A scheme is on foot to build an electrical tramway, a la Victoria, from Vancouver to the south shore of Lulu island, and from Westminster to the extreme western end of Lulu Island. Reeve Sexsmith, of Richmond, is the father of the enterprise, and he is being strongly supported financially. Efforts will be made to obtain a charter before the House rises.

JUBILEE HOSPITAL.

A meeting of the building committee of the Jubilee Hospital was held in the Board of Trade rooms yesterday afternoon, President T. R. Smith in the chair. After some discussion it was moved by Mr. R. Ward and seconded that the building should not be taken over until the architect's certificate had been handed in, which would be about two weeks, as several clerical alterations had yet to be made. Carried.

Mr. Teague, the architect, was instructed to ascertain the cost of painting the floors and walls, as had been recommended by Dr. Davie.

A letter was received from Chief Deasy of the Victoria Fire Department in reference to proper fire protection, which after several suggestions as to the best means of preventing fire had been put forward, was ordered to be acknowleged, and the secretary instructed to ask Mr. Deasy to give a few suggestions as to the cost of different systems.

The minutes of the last meeting of the general committee were then read, and that body took up the finance question.

Mr. R. E. Jackson advised the committee as to the question of raising money by mortgage, which brought forward a motion by Mr. Ward that Mr. Jackson examine the incorporation bill now before the House and see if a clause was inserted in the act giving the corporation power to mortgage the property.

OTTAWA, March 13.—The Senate discussed Imperial Federation this afternoon. Senator Boulton wants Canadian representation in the Imperial Parliament. Hon. Mr. Abbot, while not opposed to Imperial federation, said that he had was not in its favor until a definite scheme was evolved. He said that Senator Boulton's suggestion was unconstitutional. If it were adopted Canadian representation in the Imperial Parliament would be placed in a most anomalous position.

The Premier said this was the principle which the Government had acted upon, and the motion was carried unanimously.

Mr. Foster replied that provision would be made in the supplementary estimates for the continuance of the service, but the amount had not yet been fixed.

The Fisheries Department has telegraphed Inspector Mowat to at once proceed to issue the fishing licenses for the Fraser river. By the order-in-council passed the number of licenses for the season is fixed at 500, of which 350 are for the canneries and the remainder for the outside fishermen.

FORESHORE RIGHTS.

The Provincial Government Takes Action to Protect Bona Fide Owners of Water Lots.

It having been currently reported that the Dominion government was contemplating the transfer to the province of control of the foreshore rights of British Columbia, over which the former now exercises jurisdiction, application was recently made to the Chief Commisioner of Lands and Works for the purchase of the very considerable area of land forming the foreshores of Burrard Inlet, False Creek and Coal Harbor.

The property extending back from the tidal lands in question is rendered principally valuable by its water frontage, and its owners at once took measures to protect their rights, with the result that the provincial government have taken action to effectually preserve the foreshore lands from sale and thus secure the owners in the possession of their property and the advantages derived from its situation.

CANADIAN FEDERATION.

An intelligent stranger's opinion on the condition of our country and its prospects is always well worth listening to. His judgment is not likely to be biassed or his vision clouded by partialities and prejudices as even the coolest and most clear-headed among ourselves. Whatever people may think of Sir Charles Dilke's private character there are none who deny that he is a very able man, of wide intelligence and an acute observer. Sir Charles Dilke discusses the prospects of Canada in his latest work, "Problems of Greater Britain." His estimate of this country, all who are acquainted with it must pronounce just. This is what he says:

"That Canada has a prosperous future before her there can be no doubt. Of all the lands under a temperate climate to which British emigrants can go, North America is by far the most accessible, and till that continent is completely filled it is unlikely that in great numbers they will go elsewhere. Canada, like the United States, tempts the immigrants by free grants of land, and in the North-West no clearing is required, so that the intending immigrant has, as compared with those who go to the other part of the globe, the cheapest journey and the least expenditure to face when he arrives at his journey's end. The immigrants are still too few, but they soon multiply, for Canada produces men on the scale on which she produces timber, and the Canadian population increases by natural growth at a wonderfully rapid rate. Of five millions of people in Canada, four millions are Canadian born."

Canadians are trying the experiment of federation. They have many difficulties to encounter, and we grieve to see that the most serious of them is being aggravated by the foolishness, the intolerance and the wrong-headedness of some Canadians of whom better things might be expected. But we believe that they will not be allowed to destroy the work which has been so well begun. Canadian federation has worked for nearly twenty-three years without even a hitch worth mentioning. The prospect to-day is not so bright as it was a year or so ago. There is a dark cloud above the horizon. It may, and we trust it will, soon dissipate, but at this moment it looks rather threatening. Sir Charles Dilke, we hope, is not premature when he says that the difficulties in the way of federation in Canada have been conquered. He thinks so, and the opinion of so competent a critic is entitled to respect. Federation is evidently his favorite form of union. What he says on the subject is well worth reproducing. This is part of what he says about federation generally, and of Canadian federation in particular:

"Our own has been a federal age. The year 1865 saw the victory of the principle in the United States; 1867-68 the new birth of Canada through the adoption of the system I have described; 1870 the creation, in the German Empire, of the strongest federal system of the continent of Europe; 1874 the adoption in Switzerland of a federal constitution greatly improved over that of 1848. In 1885 was laid the foundation of the edifice of Australasian federation, while portions of our West Indian Crown colonies have recently been brought together under similar systems; and in South Africa alone of the countries in which the experiment has been attempted has a complete failure—and this perhaps, only temporary—as yet occurred. The difficulties which have been conquered in Canada by federation are greater than those which the founders of the Constitution of the United States had to face. The territory now administered by the Canadian Confederation is as extensive grown. tory now ruled from Washextra cost e Roman Catholic and Protolook populations are more nearly heir in strength than is the case in the nited States, and the fact that nearly a third of the people speak a different tongue from the majority, and have a far different history, prevents the creation of a homogeneous nationality such as is found across the border. On the other hand, the very fact of the existence of the United States, in its enormous power, upon the Canadian frontier, has furnished the necessary reason for a Canadian federation, to the success of which 'combination-to-prevent-absorption' is the key, and which was hurried into existence on the lapse of the Reciprocity Treaty at a moment when many Americans were expecting application for admission to the union from what they looked on as a bankrupt colony."

Canadians, when they were weaker and poorer than they are now, proved that they could not only exist but prosper without reciprocal free trade with the United States. When the Americans refused to renew the reciprocity treaty a very large proportion of them believed that Canadians would soon come to them begging for admission into the Union. But they were not long in finding out that they were mistaken. Canadians did not plead for annexation. They proved that their Confederation could exist without leaning upon the United States for support; and what it has done in the past it will be able to do in the future. If the United States were a thousand miles distant the Canadian confederation could live and prosper. Canadians are a self-reliant people, and though they are not always boasting of their country they know that it possesses all the elements of national greatness, and they know, too, that they are able to avail themselves of its resources independently of the United States or any other country. This feeling is increasing in Canada rather than diminishing. There seems to be less danger of "absorption" to-day than there was thirty years ago. What the Canadians want is to be let alone—to be allowed to work out their own destiny in their own way. And the prospect is that they will have their desire. Great Britain shows no disposition to dictate to them in any way. As far as she is concerned they are perfectly free, and the United States evinces no inclination to interfere in their affairs either directly or indirectly. Canadians can carry out the experiment of federation without interference from the outside. Whether it will be materially injured or wholly wrecked by internal dissensions remains to be seen.

TARIFF CHANGES.

The Toronto Empire, which is supposed to be in the confidence of the Government, commenting on an article that had appeared in the Minneapolis Tribune, gives the world the following information respecting the contemplated changes in the Tariff: "There will," our Toronto contemporary says, "no doubt be this session, as there is every session, some readjustment of the tariff; but that there is anything so sweeping intended as to justify its being called a general revision we certainly have had no intimation." It adds: "Of course there is no inference to be drawn from this but that Ministers are not capable of keeping their own council." The Empire goes on to say that whatever the changes are they will be made solely in the interests of Canada. The Government have no intention of adopting a tariff policy hostile to the United States. The Empire intimates that Sir John Macdonald is not so foolish or so small-minded as to expect to frighten the United States into taking any particular course by placing restrictions on trade between Canada and that country. It says: "If the people of the United States see fit to treat us fairly and generously they may be sure of this, that we shall be prompt to recognize and reciprocate their liberality; but they would, we are sure, judge us unworthy the imperial race to which both they and we belong if, instead of looking honestly after our own interests we should shape our policy with the view of either catching the smile or unnecessarily provoking the frown of our neighbors."

The people of Canada hardly need to be reassured on this subject. They know Sir John Macdonald well enough to feel certain that he would not wantonly offend their best customer by placing unnecessary obstacles in the way of the trade between the two countries. It has been his policy all along to meet the Americans more than half way, for under his administration a reciprocity clause has been placed in the revenue law, leaving it optional for the American Government to enter into reciprocal trade relations with Canada whenever it suits their convenience. This reciprocity has quite a wide range and we have no doubt that if the Americans had, at any time within the last twelve years, availed themselves of it, both they and the people of Canada would have been the gainers. Those who believe that the present Government are prepared to initiate a nagging trade policy against the United States have very little knowledge of its Leader. He is pledged to maintain the National Policy, but we are quite certain that he is prepared at any time to enter trade arrangements with the United States which do not involve a breach of faith with the people of Canada. We are inclined to believe that he is more disposed to strain a point to increase the commercial intercourse between the two countries than he is to do anything that is in any degree calculated to restrict that intercourse.

THE EXODUS.

The Boston Journal, commenting upon one of Mr. John Charlton's blue-ruin speeches, seems to think that Canada is ready to fall into the arms of Uncle Sam. If the Americans believe all that Mr. Charlton says they may be excused if they come to the conclusion that Canada has become a howling wilderness, and that every one born in it who is worth anything has emigrated to the United States. But they should not pay too much attention to our Canadian Jeremiah. Many of our young people emigrate to the United States, it is true, but then again, very many stay at home, and the conviction is becoming general in all parts of Canada that those who remain in their own country choose the better part. Canadians find by sad experience that the United States is not the El Dorado that their fancy pictured, and very many who have gone there believe that they would have done better if they had staid at home. But the great country to the south of us has many charms, and will continue to have many charms, for young and restless Canadians. Many of them go there to seek their fortune. Some succeed and some do not. But the emigration from Canada to the United States has not been anything like so great as the migration from the Eastern States to the far west. We do not hear in Canada of whole parishes being deserted, and of abandoned farms being unsaleable. If Canada were in this condition—the condition of many of the rural districts of New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts and New York—Mr. Charlton would have good reason to raise his voice in lamentation. In no part of Canada are the people in distress for want of food and for seed to put in the ground, and no provincial legislature is flooded with petitions from distressed farmers praying to be relieved from monetary obligations they have contracted. Let Mr. Charlton go to Kansas and Nebraska and Minnesota, and in sackcloth and ashes bewail the afflictions and the sorrows of those who are real'y his own people. He will find no such distress in Canada as will stare him in the face in states to which many Canadians have foolishly emigrated, and almost everything that we read and hear convinces us, "the exodus," notwithstanding, that, man for man, the rural population of Canada is better off than that of the United States. Not once, but a hundred times, have we heard Canadians who have been in the United States declare that if they worked as hard at home as they were obliged to work in the "States" they could live far more comfortably. At home they took things easily, but in a strange land they were forced to exert all their energies in order to earn a bare living. It is useless to bemoan the exodus. The young people will go to the great centres of population and to States of whose productiveness they hear such glowing accounts. The ardor of youthful minds cannot be repressed, and it is difficult to curb or to guide the ambition of the young and impulsive; but Canada will continue to grow and to prosper in spite of the constant drain on its population.

A good breed of men is raised on Canadian soil, and it is not surprising that they are in demand wherever their sterling qualities are known. Canada may, for aught we know, be destined to be the Scotland of America. Scotia's sons are found in every land, and yet the "Old Country"—"The land of brown heath and shaggy wood"—is better filled than it was a century ago. Who deplores the exodus from Scotland, yet what Scotchman or son of a Scotchman is not proud of the land of his birth and of his ancestors? We have no sympathy with Mr. Charlton's lament.

AN IMMENSE SCHEME.

A Combination Forming for a New Transcontinental.

BOSTON, March 12.—In consonance with an official circular issued to-day, Lee Higginson & Co. this afternoon bought a majority of the stock of the Chicago, Burlington & Northern at $40 a share, in the interest of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy. Immediately after the transaction was concluded the price of Burlington & Northern stock jumped up at the Boston exchange, so that nobody secured any advantage in the market from early knowledge of the trade.

Lee Higginson will buy all outstanding stock at the same price.

To-day's action is the result of three years' negotiations, and its effect will be to make the Northern road part of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, and put an end to the long prevailing rate cutting.

Speaking of the sale of the Chicago, Burlington & Northern the New York Times says that popularly this new control was credited to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy company, but there are suggestions that the latter will ultimately be found to figure less prominently in the deal than the Manitoba and the Pennsylvania which are credited with contemplating a great transcontinental route.

Friends of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy say consummation of the deal will be found to have an influence and significance far beyond what anybody yet suspects. Practically, they say, it establishes a place among the western railroads.

President Cable, of the Rock Island road, said last night: "If the deal goes through its importance cannot be overestimated. It will give us a clear atmosphere out West."

A director of the Union Pacige company said: "It changes the whole railway situation. It does for the western roads precisely what the Shore deal did for eastern trunk lines in Gould circles."

A Missouri Pacific director says: "This deal is the biggest thing that has happened in railroad circles in years."

The Burlington & Northern has been charged with being responsible for all rate cutting in the west in the past two years.

WHEAT GROWING.

TO THE EDITOR:—In reading over the inland correspondence of a late issue of your weekly, I noticed a paragraph on the possibility of wheat growing as a paying industry in that part of the Thompson River Valley below Kamloops Lake, as far as Ashcroft, including Cache Creek and Bonaparte valleys. Having resided in that part of the province at one time, and being somewhat interested in ranching there at present, I beg leave to state a few facts through your valuable journal concerning wheat growing in that section. First we have the fertility of the land, which is conceded by everyone to be equal to any now used for that purpose. The only one difference or objection to be considered is the dryness of the climate, which necessitates the extra cost of irrigation. In getting the cost of irrigation, the simplest way will be to look at the estimates and returns from farms in different parts of the continent where irrigation farming is done on a large scale and is working successfully. From such reports we find that grain can be irrigated from 10 to 15 cents per bushel, which would be, at 15 cents, 25 cents per hundred, and as the facilities for getting water in the section under discussion are as good as any locality and labor as cheap, it will be safe to put the extra cost for the irrigation at 30 cents for every hundred pounds grown. To find if it will pay with this extra cost entailed it will be necessary to look at the price of grain. There being no grain or flour market or regular prices in that section, what we can figure on is the difference of freight over eastern prices. Putting the freight at the lowest possible rates, $10 per ton, or 50 cents per cwt., we find the farmer in that section has the advantage of 50 cents per 100 weight over his brother farmer in Manitoba, which gives him his 30 cents for irrigating and 20 cents to play on. Having all the facilities of the railroad for obtaining his supplies as cheap as the farmer at any local point in Manitoba or the North-west Territory, and labor as cheap, there is no possible objection to be raised against that section of the province becoming much more prosperous than it is by a more extensive cultivation of wheat. A market could be established by the location of a roller flour mill somewhere in the centre of the locality. As the price of flour differs by freight the same as wheat, the chance for such an institution paying is apparent. There being somewhere between 500 and 600 acres now under irrigation, and, if all were put into wheat, would justify a good-sized flour mill there at the present time. The cause of the lassitude and seeming indifference of the farmers to growing wheat in that vicinity seems to be that the present farmers are nearly all old timers, and the glamor of old time prices and profits is not yet dispelled, some yet claiming it is impossible to grow wheat for less than $2.50 per cwt., where his brother farmer east of the mountains is growing it for $1.45 per cwt. and making it pay. Some saying it pays them better to buy their flour at the present price than to grow it, when it is known the world over if it wont pay the farmer to grow his own bread it wont pay him to grow anything. Until these erroneous ideas are vanquished entirely, and the new order of things that has been caused by the advent of the railroad is understood and appreciated, not until then will that section of the province go ahead and prosper as it can do. Scaly Skin Diseases.

Psoriasis 5 years, covering face, head, and entire body with white scabs; skin red, itchy and bleeding. Hair all gone. Spent hundreds of dollars. Pronounced incurable. Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

Cured by Cuticura

My disease (psoriasis) first broke out on my left cheek, spreading across my nose, and almost covering my face. It ran into my eyes, and the physician was afraid I would lose my eyesight altogether. It spread all over my head, and my hair all fell out, until I was entirely bald-headed; it then broke out on my arms and shoulders, until my arms were just one sore. It covered my entire body, my face, head, and shoulders being the worst. The white scabs fell constantly from my head, shoulders, and arms; the skin would thicken and be red and very itchy, and would crack and bleed if scratched. After spending many hundreds of dollars, I was pronounced incurable. I heard of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using two bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT I could see a change; and after I had taken four bottles, I was almost cured; and when I had used six bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT and one box of CUTICURA and one cake of CUTICURA SOAP, I was cured of the dreadful disease from which I had suffered for five years. I thought the disease would leave a very deep scar, but the CUTICURA REMEDIES cured it without leaving any scars. I cannot express with a pen what I suffered before using the CUTICURA REMEDIES. They saved my life, and I feel it my duty to recommend them. My hair is restored as good as ever, and so is my eyesight. I know of others who have received great benefit from their use.

IN A BEAR'S EMBRACE.

Narrow Escape of an Old Hunter—An Adventure that he will Remember as Long as he Lives.

Jacob Depuy, a grizzled old nimrod, tells a thrilling tale of his fight with a bear, which shows how near a man can come to death and yet live. While sitting before his camp fire, he heard an ominous growl behind him. Quick as a flash, Depuy jumped to his feet, gun in hand, and eyes and ears wide open. He soon caught sight of a large bear, and fired, but the shot only angered without disabling the brute, which advanced with gleaming eyes towards him. Roaring with pain and rage, it rushed upon the hunter, and a dreadful struggle for mastery ensued. Somehow or other, Depuy managed to unsheath his long, sharp hunting-knife, and as he and the bear rolled around—now in the red hot embers of the fire, now perilously near a high abyss, now being bumped against the ragged edge of projecting pieces of rock—he plunged it into the body of the infuriated animal.

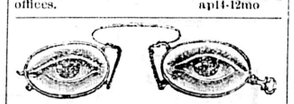

At last, with one supreme effort, the man plunged his trusty knife up to the hilt in the heart of his foe, and the bear dropped dead. As this brave hunter fought with his enemy, so do many fight with disease. In the peaceful contentment of their homes, they do not dread that disorder of the nerves which is so near. Suddenly an aching head, or a pain in the back, or a sleepless night, shows that the nerves are weakened. Then begins a terrible struggle; health and happiness, often life itself—are at stake. Now is the time to use Paine's Celery Compound. Quickly the nervous weakness will lessen its grip and be conquered. This remedy has a power in brain and nerve disorders possessed by no other. Neuralgia, headache, dyspepsia, prostration, debility, and all nervous diseases are surely cured by this scientific preparation.

PROFESSIONAL TESTIMONIALS.

MELODIOUS TONE, EASY ACTION.

During the last six months in Victoria, I made use of Messrs. Goodwin & Jordan's piano at my residence; they are distinguished by their ample melodious tone and elastic action, and they possess a capacity of modulation combined with a mechanism which makes them easy to handle. It is a pleasure to me to be able to recommend them to everyone as excellent.

HEINRICH BOHRER,
Professor of Piano.

MESSRS. GOODWIN & JORDAN:

Gentlemen,—Being familar with the best upright pianos made in Paris, London, Boston and New York, it gives me great pleasure to testify to the excellence of your pianofortes, which in regard to perfect action, musical tone and workmanship, compare with the best, and therefore are sure to give the fullest satisfaction. I am respectfully yours,

ANCIENT HISTORY.

TO THE EDITOR:—It is doubtless gratifying to ratepayers to receive the annual reports of the corporation at this time (nearly three months overdue). If our worthy city fathers had only thought of it they might have held the publication back a few months longer and made the reports do for two years. To be of any practical use the reports should be circulated previous to the municipal elections. As it is it seems to me to be a farce and a waste of good money to issue them at such a late day.

THE B. C. SOUTHERN.

Mr. Charles Wilson Ascribes the Defeat of the Bills to Four Distinct Causes.

Mr. Charles Wilson, who has been spending the past few weeks in Ottawa in the interest of the Spokane Falls and Northern railways, more generally known as the British Columbia Southern systems, whose bills were thrown out by the railway committee of the Dominion House about ten days ago, returned home last evening.

He naturally feels keenly the defeat of the projects with which he was so prominently identified, and which he worked so hard to advance, and when a COLONIST reporter asked him last evening to what he ascribed the defeat of the bills, he replied at once—"Just four things: The influence of the C. P. R., the apathy of the British Columbia members at Ottawa, the energetic opposition of the Revelstoke smelter, and that resolution of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia."

Continuing, Mr. Wilson said that that resolution was a stupendous surprise to himself and the other promoters of the projected roads. It was entirely uncalled for, and the conditions mentioned could not possibly be agreed to. All that was asked from the Dominion Government was the right to bring a railway over a mathematical line, the International boundary, into the Dominion. No favors were requested. If a grant of land, for which the province would have been approached, had been asked for, these conditions might have rightly been imposed. The case was entirely different. Three distinct charters had been applied for. The two roads mentioned in the application to the Dominion were: one from Nelson to Sproat's Landing; the other from Kettle River to the coast. To the provincial legislature the promoters of the road had come for power to construct a railway from Nelson River to the south end of Kootenay Lake. The provincial government in forwarding the resolution of the legislature to Ottawa had tacked all three applications together and asked that the company be required to "put up" $250,000 to be forfeited should they fail in any condition, time or otherwise, in the construction of either of the three roads.

Of the one line it had been said that it would take British Columbia ore out of the country, to Spokane Falls, and this had been stated as a cause for provincial jealousy of the projected line. Such a cause for opposition could hardly have been urged, however, in the case of the road from Nelson River to the Coast. That would have been a road purely provincial, and beneficial to all parts of the province. Had the three bills not have been tacked together the company would have accepted a charter, and built the line to the British Columbia coast.

Mr. Wilson thought that the provincial legislators had taken an entirely wrong railway policy. In encouraging the investment of foreign capital it was very unwise, to say the least, to impose multitudinous conditions and to say that railways would have to be built in just such and such ways as the provincial parliament determined. Capital was not pleading for investment, and the present action had driven $12,000,000 away. Washington territory had adopted a liberal railway policy; there it was not necessary even to go to the government for a charter. A railway could be projected and constructed, with as little difficulty as a ship could be launched in the Pacific; there were no difficulties in regard to acquiring rights of way, and the result was that the map of Washington to-day showed more real railroads in daily operation than the paper roads marked upon the map of British Columbia.

In reply to a query if there was the slightest foundation for the report that Mr. Corbin had been bought out by the Canadian Pacific, Mr. Wilson in closing the interview said, "Such a rumor if it was circulated was utterly false. Mr. Corbin never communicated with the C.P.R. but once, when he met Mr. Shaugnessy in my presence. There was only one point worth mentioning in the interview and that was a remark of Mr. Shaugnessy's that it would be a good idea to place an export duty on Canadian ores to prevent the mineral wealth of Kootenay being taken out of the country."

The evening's performance will be for a male audience, and during it Lewis, winner of the heavy weight cup, will meet all comers.

WRESTLING.

THE V. A. C. WRESTLING TOURNAMENT.

The audience in the Philharmonic hall last night to witness the wrestling matches by members of the Victoria Athletic club was small, but enthusiastic. The bouts were very interesting and hotly contested, and some really first-class work was done. The physique of every one of the contestants was superb, and showed off well the immense benefit to be obtained from the practice of this ancient sport of kings. When those two muscular giants, Shade and Leon Bernard, met, there was a sharp preliminary struggle, Shade went down, Bernard on top; Bernard flung his powerful right arm round Shade's neck, dragging the head of Shade back on the latter's shoulders. It was a death grip, Shade's face turned livid, his legs and body quivered, he fainted and was carried unconscious from the stage. They tried it once again when Shade recovered consciousness, but Bernard again proved himself the conqueror. The winners are as follows: Light weight, Roselle; middle weights, 1st, D. A. Gallagher, 2nd, J. W. Weiler; heavy weights, 1st, Leon Bernard, 2nd, Theodore Bernard.

Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitudes of low test short-weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 107 Wall Street, New York. au15-1y
